

love story between two star-crossed lovers

23 0 3

Chapter 1 by Lauren McQuilken

Two people looking at the stars at night. These two not knowing that they are looking at the same group of stars. The person in the country side is a boy his name is Luke, the other person lives in a city and her name is Carly. Carly is a very upset girl, because whenever Carly does something right she gets abused and when she does something wrong she gets a reward. But for Luke it's the exact opposite. A shooting star happened! "I wish to find love." they both said at the same time. After that they went to their beds and went to sleep. The next morning Luke went to the kitchen to find his mom cooking breakfast, for Carly she had to make breakfast for herself. her father came down and asked for her to cook his breakfast, if she said no she would face severe punishment like last time... Although with Luke his mom asked sweetly "What would you like for breakfast dear." As you read now they have very different lives....
